

Cherry Tree Orders
Must Be Filed
by March 10

The University Hatchet

STUDENT

WEEKLY

Pre-Med. Interviews
Are Scheduled for Wed., Fri.

VOL. 29, NO. 21

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1933

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER
POST OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

COUNCIL HITS HATCHET PRESS RIGHTS

133 Graduates Hear Dr. Canby On Galsworthy At Convocation

Noted Literary Critic Delivers First Eulogy of English Writer

MARVIN GIVES CHARGE

March Literary Review to Carry Dr. H. S. Canby's Complete Address

Addressing the 133 graduates of the University, Dr. Henry Seidel Canby, one of America's foremost literary critics, delivered a eulogy of John Galsworthy at the mid-winter convocation of The George Washington University which was held in Constitution Hall last Wednesday night.

Dr. Canby, editor of the Saturday Review of Literature and a member of the faculty of Yale University, was well qualified to deliver the eulogy, aside from his ability as a literary critic, as he was intimately associated with the eminent British novelist and dramatist. Dr. Canby's address unfortunately is too lengthy to be included in the columns of The Hatchet. It will, however, be published in the March issue of the Literary Review.

Marvin Delivers Charge
Following the conferring of degrees President Cloyd Heck Marvin delivered the charge to the graduates. The charge reads:

Members of the Graduating Class:
The era that is upon us needs educated men and women. Technical training in the arts, the sciences, or the professions is not enough, for in any period of social transition, technical training alone tends to blind the individual. Technical training gives him a knack, a specific feeling about an operation, and allocates him to a type of discipline, when what is needed is the freedom to seek life's adventures.

It is said that leisure will help us find the way. That may just as well be the way to destruction as to an elevation of man. Scholasticism had essentially to do with leisure, but it did not provide a liberal education. From it can be pointed out how those who are in dire need of education often the most resist that need. No, leisure will be of worth only if we understand how to use it.

It is said that this nation believes in liberal education. See our many schools and colleges and universities. But like

(Continued on Page 6)

Band to Participate In Inaugural Parade

George Washington Unit Will Make First Entry in Inaugural Event

George Washington University will be officially represented in an inaugural parade for the first time in the history of the institution when the University band will lead the Fourth Division of the parade on March 4. It is the only University band in the parade independent of R. O. T. C. units.

Approximately 25 bands will be represented in the parade, including organizations from Oklahoma, Iowa and Florida. Lists for positions in the line of march were closed about three weeks ago and George Washington is one of the chosen few to participate in the festivities.

Forty-nine musicians will wear the Buff and Blue uniforms, headed by the "Spirit of '76" aggregation. Dr. Havener, chairman of the inaugural parade committee, stated today that the University Trumpeters had been placed in "one of the most favorable positions," as the leaders of the "Political and Civilian Division," according to Louis Malkus, band director.

May Hold Contest
If sufficient interest is manifested by visiting bands a music contest will be held at the court of honor in front of the White House Saturday night. The University band expects to participate in the competition.

Louis Malkus announced that spring concerts by the band will probably begin April 1. They will be held in the University yard between the hours of 4:30 and 5 o'clock. Rehearsals for concert programs have been under way for some weeks and account for the curtailment of public appearances by the organization.

DARKNESS DESIRED ---

Year Book Orders Are Due March 10

University's Most Distinctive Annual to Be Printed in Four Colors

Subscriptions for the 1933 Cherry Tree will be accepted up to and including March 10. It is absolutely necessary that those desiring a copy of this year's annual subscribe before this date, as only enough copies will be ordered to cover the advance sales. The price of the annual is four dollars and must be paid at the publications office, first floor, Building T, 2016 H street northwest.

This year's book with its many features, is already becoming the talk of the campus. Offering a modernistic book, including four-color process work throughout, the 1933 Cherry Tree will be the most distinctive and colorful book ever presented to the students of the University.

For the first time in any college annual, a feature, "The March of Events," will be offered, depicting in pictures the outstanding events of the college year. Opposite each picture will be an accompanying story, thus establishing a permanent pictorial history of the past school year. This section will afford an opportunity never before offered for perpetrating the highlights of the years spent at the University.

Beauty Section Featured
A beauty section, judged by Ronald Colman and Janet Gaynor, will perhaps be the most interesting, as the winners will be most announced until the book makes its appearance.

A division of unusual views photographed around the University, including one painted by a prominent artist and reproduced in four colors, will be alone worth the cost of the annual.

The sports section has been greatly enlarged in keeping with the athletic progress of the University.

For the convenience of those wishing to subscribe to the annual a form is provided on page 6, which may be mailed to the publications office of the University, accompanied by a check for four dollars. Immediately on receipt of same a form will be sent the subscriber entitling him to his copy of the annual.

MATHEMATICIANS MEET
The Mathematics Club will meet tomorrow at 8 p. m. in Corcoran Hall 22. Mr. Archie Blake will speak on "The Theory of Equations in Generalized Number Systems."

176 Students Make Semester Honor Roll

Registrar Announces Standings of Exceptional Merit; Point Standing Differs

One hundred and seventy-six students, made the honor roll of the various colleges and divisions of the University, according to announcement made by the registrar's office yesterday.

The qualifications for this recognition takes in the several schools.

The Junior College:
To be eligible for the honor roll in the Junior College a student must have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours, exclusive of physical education, and must maintain a scholarship index of 3.50 on the basis of his complete record.

William Bohall, Warren Churchill, Harry Clark, Benjamin Davis, Samuel Dove, Charlotte Dubin, Mrs. G. R. Edwards, Mary Ferry, Joseph Friedman, Susan Futterer, W. Howard Gammon, Alma Gemeny, Armand Gordon.

Earl Hackworth, Robert Hankin, Sally Harrison, Howard Hartman, Samuel Hillman, Katherine Hobson, Marion Illig, Joseph Jorlemon, Marie Jorlemon, James H. Lewis, Laura Ludwig, Raymond Makari, Carlos Marcum, Bernard Margolius, Adele Meriam, Pink W. Meriam, Irving Michelson, Kathryn Mushake, Louise Newkirk, Gerson Nordlinger, Jr., Marie O'Brien, Bernath Phillips, William Pierson.

(Continued on Page 6)

Bowman Announces Pre-Med Interviews

The admissions committee of the Medical School of the University will meet for personal interviews with prospective students in the office of Dean McKinley, 1335 H street northwest, at 8 p. m. on the evenings of Wednesday, March 1 and Friday, March 3, it has been announced by the advisor to pre-medical students, Professor Paul W. Bowman.

Students who have applied or expect to apply for admission to the Medical School next September, and have not received a mailed notice of a time for an interview, are requested to see the advisor at his office, 1-30. Those who have not yet filed their applications should do so as soon as possible.

Frosh Will Quiz Student Council At 10 A. M. On Hatchet Censor

Coon, Haley, and Maxwell Must Explain Student Council's Action

BULLARD INVITES SOPHS

Kemper Resolution Condemning Council Due for Action Today

Betty Coon, James Haley, and Margaret Maxwell, Junior College Student Council representatives, will face the freshman class today to explain the Council's stand on the Wenzl Hatchet resolution.

This move was the result of a special meeting called Saturday by Fred Bullard, president of the frosh. Attention was called by President Bullard to the action taken by the Student Council which forbade The Hatchet the right to select its reporters to be present at Student Council Meetings.

Indignation and feeling ran high on the question and it reached a climax when Edward Kemper read the following resolution:

"WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the Class of 1936 of The George Washington University that the Student Council has passed a resolution denying The University Hatchet the right to select a representative to report Student Council proceedings; and

"WHEREAS: The Class of 1936 feels that the Student Council sessions should be open to Hatchet reporters so that it may have unbiased news concerning Student Council activities,

"BE IT RESOLVED: That the Class of 1936 condemns the above said Student Council resolution and goes on record as favoring open meetings in the presence of any reporter or reporters selected by the editor of The University Hatchet."

A fiery discussion broke out upon the reading of this resolution. Agreement was finally reached by the class when it passed a motion submitted by F. G. Latey that the members of the Student Council representing Junior College be given a chance to defend their action at today's meeting.

President Bullard extended an invitation to the sophomore class, which also had evidenced interest in the Council's action, to attend this meeting.

Engineers' Council to Select Chairman of Annual Banquet

The Engineer's Council will elect a chairman for the fifth annual engineers' banquet at its next general meeting, Wednesday at 7:45 p. m., in Corcoran 10. Attendance at this meeting is open to any engineering student.

The banquet, a major event of Engineering School, is to be given in April; the exact date and place, however have not yet been determined. Committees that are to begin work immediately will be appointed at this meeting.

Casting Committee Makes Selections For Cue and Curtain's Spring Comedy

Nine Veterans, Two New Actors, Chosen for Roles; Mammoth Publicity Campaign to Promote "The Romantic Young Lady"

As a climax to three hours of motonous try-outs on Thursday night and a like number on Friday, the Cue and Curtain casting committee decided upon the 11 actors and actresses who will take part in the organization's forthcoming production, "The Romantic Young Lady," on May 10, 11, and 12, at Wardman Park Theatre.

The students so honored are as follows: Elizabeth Rice, Adele Gusack, Margaret Gilligan, Doris Thomas, Ruth Molyneux, Jack Richmond, Wilburn West, Karl Gay, Royal Gunnison, Grant Van Demark, and Joe Danzansky. Because of the great difficulty in making decisions, Constance Connor Brown, director of dramatics, stated that she and the casting committee would not make any definite assignment to roles until next week.

Glancing over the cast, two new names are noticed. Wilburn West, a

How They Voted

"Resolved: That James Haley should be retained as the Student Council reporter for The Hatchet."

Ayes:

James Haley, Jr. College.
Margaret Maxwell, Jr. College.
Catherine Prichard, Col. College.
Jack Goode, Law School.
George Wenzl, School of Govt.
Loren Murray, Fine Arts.
Valpeau Darling, Engineering.

Nayes:

Betty Coon, Jr. College.

No Vote:

Elton Billings, president, Law School.

Absent:

Chester Chamberlain, Pharmacy.
Kathleen Watkins, Library Science.

Samuel Danno, Med. School.
Edith Grosvenor, Education.
Dorothy Neiss, Col. College.

Council Will Meet With Life Committee

Plans for Annual Spring Carnival to Be Announced Next Week

EDITOR'S NOTE

This is the report of the recent Student Council meeting as released to us by the authorized reporter of that body. Compare it with the story in column six; particularly note the lack of details and vital facts.

Faculty members of the Student Life Committee will meet in joint session with the Student Council tomorrow night for the purpose of making plans for coordination of student activities on the campus.

Information obtained by the Council in the recent investigations of student organizations will form the basis for action by the group. A general award system, making leaders of principal activities members of the Student Council, and approval of heads of student activities by the Council, will be among the subjects considered by the Council and committee.

Plans for the annual spring carnival were made at a special meeting of the Council Thursday night. Announcement of the director and various committees will be made in the next issue of The Hatchet.

Following a lengthy discussion on the method of conducting the popularity contest last year, the Council last week ruled that any popularity contest conducted this year must be in connection with the sale of tickets of admission to the carnival or some attraction at the carnival.

Presence of a Hatchet reporter at meetings of the Council was voted adversely by the Council.

Betty Coon, chairman of a committee investigating the points system, submitted a report for consideration of the Council. Copies of the system under consideration are being mailed to each member for suggestion and criticism. The Council will take action on the matter at its next meeting.

Dorothy Niess, representative from Columbian College, has been appointed by President Elton Billings, as acting secretary in place of the regularly elected secretary, Chester Chamberlain, who is unable to be present at all meetings of the Council.

Naming Reporter Is Editor's Sole Right, Contends Hatchet Board

Wenzl and Haley Lead Organization's Opposition to Hatchet Proposal

COON IS LONE OPPONENT

Abrogation of Traditional Freedom of Press Leaves Editors Aghast

By a vote of seven to one, the Student Council last Wednesday night sent The Hatchet proposal for open publicity of Council meetings crashing to defeat with the following resolution:

"Resolved: That James Haley should be retained as the Student Council reporter for The Hatchet."

George Wenzl, representative of the School of Government and James Haley, Junior College representative, led the opposition to The Hatchet proposal with the introduction of the resolution reaffirming Haley as the Council press representative.

Wenzl strongly disapproved the presence of a Hatchet reporter, stating that "there occur discussions and debates which are best left unpublished . . . and it is sufficient to restrict a reporter to publish only such concrete material as the Council saw advantageous to print." Haley iterated in his remarks the opinions expressed by Wenzl.

Futile Battle Waged

Betty Coon, of the Junior College, waged a futile battle as the lone opponent of the resolution. In an interview with a Hatchet reporter at the close of the session, Representative Coon declared:

"I am in accordance with the opinions expressed by the editors at the recent Council hearing in respect to its selection of Council reporters. I believe cooperation between the Student Council and The Hatchet is essential to our progress. That is my reason for opposing the Wenzl resolution." The resolution climaxes two weeks

(Continued on Page 5)

Women Win Debate Against Swarthmore

George Washington Orators Uphold Affirmative of War Debt Question

Debating before an audience of approximately 75 people, Clara Critchfield, Esther Talley and Charlotte Dubin talked their way into public favor Friday night at Friends' Meeting House when they upheld the affirmative of the question: Resolved, That the United States should agree to the cancellation of the inter-allied war debts.

Speaking against Virginia Sutton, Helen Malone, and Elizabeth Shafer of Swarthmore College in a non-decision debate sponsored by the Swarthmore Alumni Association of Washington, the George Washington women maintained that Europe should not be made to pay as it does not have the money. England now has a balanced budget, but only without considering the war debt. The negative refuted this by saying that because these debts were legally contracted, they should be paid—cancellation would mean a step toward armament—maintaining the money was on hand and would furnish funds for implements of war. The affirmative said it would be to the best of our advantage, as a nation, to curtail payment in order not to curb buying power. Non-payment would be a step toward peace and friendly feeling.

Audience ballots were passed out to estimate the shift of opinion. Individuals marked their opinion before the debate. After the debate, they marked any change brought about by the debaters. The shift of opinion was decidedly in favor of the George Washington team.

At the conclusion, an open forum discussion was conducted by Elizabeth Reeves, a member of Delta Sigma Rho, who was chairman of the debate.

(Continued on Page 5)

The University Hatchet

Member

Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States—National College Press Association.

Editor: C. MANLEY FESLER
Business Manager: LESTER M. GATES

Associate Editors

JOHN T. MADIGAN CATHERINE PRICHARD
WALTER RHINEHART

SENIOR STAFF MEMBERS

Harriet Atwell, Charles Bell, Rhoda Bloss, John Busch, Ludwig Camilla, Betty Coon, Samuel Detwiler, Virginia Hawkins, Robert Herzog, Margaret Liebler, Wilbur Schmidt.

Business Assistants

J. EDGAR NELSON JACK HAZARD WILBURN WEST
Circulation Manager

Published weekly from September to June, with one issue in July, by the students of The George Washington University, Washington, D. C. Entered as second-class matter, October 27, 1911, at the Post Office at Washington, D. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Acceptances for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized March 8, 1919. Telephone National 6468 (University Exchange) then ask for "University Hatchet." (After 7 p. m. and on Sunday call District 6170.) For last-minute news call Shepherd 2521. Subscription, $2.00 a year.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PUBLICATIONS

Executive Officer: Douglas Bement
Graduate Manager: Henry W. Herzog

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1933.

The Student Council Has Apparently Acted Without Counting to Ten

At a recent meeting of the Student Council, action was taken which, in effect, will exclude attendance of a Hatchet reporter at Student Council meetings. By taking such action members of the Council not only ignore the right of their constituents to scrutinize their activities as representatives of the student body but also set themselves up as qualified judges of the news value of the proceedings of the Council. The Hatchet believes that in both instances the Student Council is in error and that they have reached their decision without serious deliberation on either of the points mentioned above.

In the first place The Hatchet has no idea of prying into the business of the Student Council. It is, however, our belief that student interest can and will be stimulated by the publication of the proceedings of that body. For instance, members of the Engineering School are entitled to know the stand taken by their representatives on any and all questions involving either the Engineering School in particular or the University in general. Likewise it is to the best interests of the representatives of any particular school in the University to project their activities before not only the group which elected them but the entire student body. Such a procedure can only serve to swing the support of interested students behind the representatives who are entitled to that support and also to bring to light lack of activity on the part of Council members whose attitude warrants such a focus of attention.

As to the function of passing upon the news value of Student Council activities, it seems to The Hatchet that the situation may be very well taken care of by the ethics of journalism.

It is not the province of news stories, as such, to utter opinion either for or against the subject matter of their content. Such duty is entirely an editorial one. It is not only the privilege, but the relentless purpose of news stories to picture conditions as they exist with no respect to persons or policies involved, and it is and shall continue to be the policy of The University Hatchet to uphold these standards of journalism. Therefore, this publication is bound to report the proceedings of the Student Council in their entirety and leave valuations of merits to the students who read the paper. To do this it is necessary that a Hatchet reporter attend all meetings of the Student Council.

There are several things which might be called to the attention of the student body concerning the recent meetings of the Council at which certain leaders of campus organizations were brought to testify. It seems that no record was kept of the votes upon the question of the attendance of a Hatchet reporter. From this it may be deduced that no record was kept of the votes, if any, on other questions. At the meeting which decided upon the fate of The Hatchet reporter, there were five absentees. This may or may not be a regular thing at Council meetings. The Hatchet does not presume to criticize the actions of the Student Council in their own field of endeavor. Members of the Council may or may not attend the meetings, as they choose. The secretary may or may not keep minutes as he or she chooses, but The Hatchet does maintain that such records are of interest to the student body and should be placed before them. Therefore, to reiterate, The Hatchet feels that the presence of a reporter at Council meetings is necessary to the enlightenment of the student body concerning the activities of the Student Council.

Why Not Allow Outsiders To Attend the All-University Carnival?

Last year's carnival was a greater success than anticipated both in financial returns and in entertainment value. Furthermore, practically every organization in the University contributed support. Last year the carnival was planned for George Washington students alone with no idea of drawing city patronage. But the carnival was patronized not only by neighbors but also by a sprinkling of people from throughout the District. The appeal of C-A-R-N-I-V-A-L is irresistible. This year, why not open the show for the entertainment of the entire District and surrounding territory?

Bouquets and Brickbats

Bouquets with plenty of posies to the junior class, which has definitely decided to give a Junior Prom . . . time and place undecided . . . but it will be "prom week-end" affair . . . a nationally known dance orchestra will furnish the music . . . and all for the depression price of one buck . . . rather humorous attempt that of any body to "restrict a reporter to publish only such concrete material as the council saw advantageous to print" . . . nice of the Student Council to dictate to The Hatchet what it shall publish and when and how it shall be printed . . . other universities have attempted to stifle the campus press . . . all have failed in the attempt . . . "star chamber" sessions of investigations have been abolished in this country . . . at least all other investigating bodies keep minutes and a record of votes taken . . . but the G. W. student council didn't deem the resolution excluding the press of sufficient interest to even take a recorded vote . . . and incidentally there were five absentees at this all-important meeting . . . rather inconsistent gesture on the part of two Hatchet staff members who voted to exclude reporters . . . bouquets to the frosh class for calling its three representatives "on the carpet" to explain their attitude in the matter . . . competition for local eat shops becomes apparent as the Home Econ Department plans to serve "a complete menu" for the price of a quarter on every Tuesday and Thursday noon during the entire month of March . . . Fesler, Savage and Shipley will take over the "Spirit of '76" presentation . . . tough when Phi Deltas ordered yellow tea roses for pledge sashes and the florist sent up Delta Zeta's official pledge bouquet instead . . . an orchid to G. W. U. swimmers who tied the undefeated Duke team . . . (five records are alleged to have been broken) . . . and just to show that he wasn't born yesterday, Jack Espey failed to fall for the old "long-distance and reversed charges" gag which a Columbia U. coach tried to pull on him during his stay in N. Y. . . that new eat shop persists upon being seen with glaring red neon doing its stuff all night . . . bouquets to the G. W. quintet which rated an invitation to appear on the City College of N. Y. basketball schedule next season . . . incidentally the Colonial basketballers have chalked up 15 wins in 19 games this season . . . and three of the "regulars" are lost by graduation . . . posies to the football candidates who begin a long grind when they report for the first spring practice soon . . . and congrats to the Colonial riflemen who defeated the V. M. I. squad . . . Cue and Curtin ballyhoo announces a "fast-moving comedy" in "The Romantic Young Lady" . . . the brain child of a Spanish author . . . a decided bid for orchids when it is announced that Wardman Park Theatre seats will be sold to students at a half a check per head . . . and it is planned to have "The Romantic Young Lady" draped over the tires of collegiate cars . . . (Van Demark's chance to help the cause along) . . . a secret publicity stunt" is indeed a novel idea . . . and it's bouquets to the proprietors of The Colonial Food emporium who sent up sandwiches for a hungry staff Sunday night . . . (an attempt to bribe the press, the meanies whisper) . . . a good idea that of the five senior members of the G. W. basketballers to play the other members of the team to raise money for the Varsity Farewell dance in spring . . . the judges decided the Philippineian verbal battle by tipping a coin . . . (which one of the judges was lucky enough to possess a coin?) . . . a brickbat to the lad who strayed off with John (Sport-Ax) Busick's skimmer Sunday night . . . (Rollo offers a premium to the charitable scoundrel if he keeps said derby well hid) . . . John will exchange his acquired black felt Stetson for his original top-piece . . . and it's honorable mention for the West Publishing Company man who is conducting the Law Book lectures . . .

ANTON OMASIA.

CHIPS

"Ith my fath wed," said Dick Rollo when he heard the results on the Wenzel resolution. . . . What must be perplexing is the eyes of Mr. and Mrs. Judas (Haley and Prichard) Hatchet water boy and halfback, respectively. . . . Baron Von Wenzel better have those mastoids put back. . . . Are you sure that is what they took out, George, old bean? . . . Virginia Seal seems to have taken up the man hunt idea now that her sister scored so successfully . . . noting that "Mary-King back model" garb she sported at the Chi O dance. . . . Sickler pounded a quarter out of the phone booth at the same affair while many of the lads contented themselves by snatching radiator caps from the guests' cars. . . . Even Rollo thinks that's scummy. . . . Quite a time the Pi Phis had installing that chapter at Duke which, like all other installed chapters, was a wow—you know they just can't understand how such beautiful women stayed local so long—every one of them had at least three points up on the Madonna. . . . When quizzed by Rollo on the other sororities on the campus, Jane Edwards said the Zetas were the oldest, and they looked it—The A. D. Pi's were fine, but are slipping.—She wouldn't say anything about the Kappas because they let the local Pi Fees sleep with them. . . . The Sigma Nu goats called the actives' bluff when they called a general strike during Hell Week and went to the movies.—The telegram, "We have been kidnapped, send 20 bucks," must have concenterated the brothers more than the walkout. . . . The Glee Club is not a form of insanity, decided Rollo, but just the old maestro, Ben Bernie Harmon—if you don't believe it, take an evening off and attend a practice—it's worth it. . . . It's too bad the Women's Athletic Department lost Draper, because even she would have been bright enough to give the freshmen and not the juniors those green suits. . . . "My, I'm all tired out. I've refereed three games today," Edith Grosvenor.—Gracious, Edie, you had better rest a bit. . . . Yes, a freshman will probably inherit the incumbent Rollo's job next year. . . . Charlie Bell's society editorship has gone to his head, and it's most probable that that last week's moustache of his might be found in his socks. . . . Cue and Curtin picks its cast.—Danzanek got a part in spite of being flayed by Free.—Van Demark also came home even if Constance did think he wrote the story in the Razzberry and as for Doris Thomas—that's what we call pickin' 'em. . . . Hats off to the new Coffee Shop for the free Sunday night feed. . . . Since Maxwell didn't know how she voted when first approached by The Hatchet reporter, it's suggested if the front page cartoon is an accurate portrayal, she spend council meetings pruning the council nails. . . . Savage and Fesler are going to get some competition from Rollo when they vie for favor with that newcoming brunette, Hazel Lunsford, who haunts the Food Shop to disturb one's evening meal. . . . Depression seems to have hit the intellect as well as the pocketbook, from a glance at this year's honor roll. . . . Rollo caught the eye at the Acacia dash around when he arrived from Sawtelle's reception for the C. A. R., and the Sigma Chis (no difference) with new model open neck tux.—That red sash was NOT a misplaced necktie. . . . The square boys displayed a fine variety of feminine accoutrements, outstanding Madame X in white satin (send name, address, and phone number), Dot Willard in green velvet with a toiban and mosquito net (rather previous for summer, Dottie), and Ruth McNary, also in six or seven shades of green. . . . Dere Betty—you must be slippin' like my hated rival Anton Omasia, since you didn't know there is two Betty Roses (difference in weight and eat club only)—The Pi Flies all smoke now (in public). . . . Exam just arrived—2 a.m.—Grade 91—Range 29 to 95—Median 70—Q1 equals 61; Q3 equals 79—Review by General Delivery Friday. . . . Prichard almost made a Gamma Eta Zeta out of Dunlap, only there wasn't an A. D. Pi or Kappa to balance the Kaboodle. . . . Bastable washed out Ed Kemper in favor of the suede-shoed Sigma Nu. . . . Columbian Women donate curtains for Lambie House. . . . It takes a crowd of old hens to think about curtains. . . . Did you see Madame Bell, Hatchet society editor, at the rasslin matches in a black astrakhan coat with runs in the stockings?—Miss Potter, Cue and Curtin blow and blast man, at Connie's office last nite in a black broadcloth which fell from head to feet? A little cheer and pleasant dreams. Au revoir.

OLE CAGLIOSTRO ROLLO.

NOTES ON COLLEGIATE ACTIVITIES

Luther Club Plans Talks Led by Dr. Markley

Dr. Mary Markley, students' secretary of the board of education of the United Lutheran Church, will lead two discussion groups on "Around the World With Christ" at the meetings of the George Washington University Lutheran Club tonight and next Tuesday night. The discussions will be conducted at 8 p. m. in Lambie House.

The speaker is well qualified to lead these discussions, which deal with foreign missions, inasmuch as she has personally visited most of the missions maintained by the United Lutheran Church all over the world.

Mrs. Marvin Entertains Twentieth Century Club

Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin was hostess to the literature section of the Twentieth Century Club at her home last night. Mrs. George R. Putnam reviewed Arnold Bennett's "Journal," and Miss Myra Hendley spoke on Hebert Gorman's "The Scottish Queen."

Alpha Chi Sigma Hears Dr. Morey at Smoker

Choosing as his subject "The Chemical Aspects of Volcanic Action," Dr. George W. Morey, well known scientist of the United States Geophysical Laboratory in Washington, addressed the members and guests of Alpha Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma, national chemical fraternity, at its final rush smoker held last Saturday at the Hamilton Hotel.

Having conducted investigations upon glasses and complex silicates for many years, Dr. Morey has come to be known as an authority in this field. His talk dealt primarily with the chemical factors underlying the causes of volcanic activity. Lantern slides served to illustrate the lecture. A large number of colored photographs taken in different stages of eruption were shown.

Following Dr. Morey's address, Bourdon F. Scribner, president of the chapter, welcomed the guests and described the history of Alpha Chi Sigma, its aims and activities. The remainder of the evening was devoted to cards, smokes and refreshments.

Among those present were Dr. Raleigh Gilchrist and Dr. Joseph A. Ambler, of the George Washington chemical faculty, and Arthur W. Van Heuckeroth, president of Alpha Pi chapter in 1929.

Ragatz's Class to Visit Corcoran Art Gallery

A trip to the Corcoran Art Gallery for the purpose of studying the collection of paintings, drawings and etchings by members of the Romanitic school has been arranged this week for the students of Prof. Lowell J. Ragatz's class in modern European history. Class study has previously been made of the lives and chief works of the artists of that period.

Hurt Tells of Character Building in Camp Life

The processes of character building and their application to camp life were discussed by Dr. H. W. Hurt, national director of research of the Boy Scouts of America, before the camp leadership class last Thursday.

Dr. Hurt, who is also chairman of the committee on "Youth Outside the Home" of the White House Conference, included in his talk a report on the survey of camping.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, February 28

Phi Pi Epsilon will meet at 7:45 in the Alpha Delta Pi rooms.

The Episcopal Club will give a card party at 8 p. m. at St. John's Parish House, 821 Sixteenth street northwest.

Luther Club will meet at 8 p. m. in Lambie House. The discussion will be "Around the World With Christ."

Newman Club will hold an informal dance and card party at the Hay Loft Club.

Orchestra will meet at 9:30 p. m. at the Ten O'Clock Club, 1603 K street.

Wednesday, March 1

The Drama Appreciation Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. in Lambie House. Try-outs will be held to fill the remaining positions.

Gamma Eta Zeta will meet at 12 noon in the Chi Omega rooms.

The Symphony Club will meet at 8 p. m. in Lambie House to elect officers. Refreshments will be served.

The W. A. A. Board will meet at 1 p. m. in Building R, second floor.

Thursday, March 2

Christian Science Organization will hold its services at 8:10 p. m. on the second floor of Lambie House.

Friday, March 3

Chapel will be held at 12:10 p. m. in Corcoran 10.

The Modern Poetry Club will meet at 12:30 p. m. in W-17.

El Club Espanol will hold a Spanish card party at 8:30 p. m. in Lambie House.

Art Appreciation Club will meet at 8 p. m. in Lambie House.

Monday, March 6

The Women's Intramural Board will meet at 12 noon in Building R, second floor.

Phi Sigma Rho, philosophical society, will hold an open discussion on the subject, "Is There a Personal God?" at 8:15 p. m. in M-10.

LOST—A black leather notebook somewhere around the Library. Return to Ann Burger at the Alpha Delta Pi rooms 2022 G street northwest, or 1319 Delafield place northwest. Phone GE. 7043.

Did You Know That . . .

The lectures in History 38 and 133 given for the past nine years by Dr. Lowell Joseph Ragatz at George Washington University will be the nucleus of two historical works, which are to be produced by Dr. Ragatz under a contract with Prentiss-Hall, publishers of New York. The book, "Europe in the 19th and 20th Centuries," which is based on the lectures in History 38, will appear in 1934 and will cover political, social, economic, and cultural development from Waterloo to the present day. Lectures in History 133 will be the basis of the second book, "Modern Imperialism," which will be completed in 1936 and will be a history of international rivalries in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Area, and South America. Dr. Ragatz delivered these lectures also at Johns Hopkins University and the University of Nebraska during summer sessions.

Dr. Paul Bartsch, professor of zoology at George Washington University, is the leader of an oceanographic expedition which has just discovered an ocean depth of nearly nine miles, exceeding previously reported depths in this section by approximately four miles. The discovery was made 75 miles north of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and is claimed to be the lowest point in the bed of the Atlantic.

ELEANOR HELLEL.

Is Shaw Profane . . . Or Insane?

Let G. B. Shaw's lively wit whisk you by today's religions in "THE ADVENTURES OF THE BLACK GIRL IN HER SEARCH FOR GOD." A searching, fanciful, and impious fairy tale for grown-ups. Delightfully entertaining. Advance copies on sale WEDNESDAY.

$1.50

Paul Pearlman
1711 G STREET N. W.

OBVIOUS

that a majority of upperclassmen and freshmen prefer the

FOOD SHOP

. . . timely menus and a 35-cent meal like this: Meat, two vegetables; hot bread, butter, beverage; soup and salad (or any dessert except pie a la mode) . . . food that is good away beyond the indication of the low price just does bring a crowd.

Accept Miss Holt's invitation

20th and G Streets

2 for 1 Sale

—Woodbury's

- 10c Violet Transparent Soap . . . 2 for 10c
- 10c French Process Soaps . . . 2 for 10c
- 15c French Round Soap . . . 2 for 15c
- 25c Henri Rochecau Soap . . . 2 for 25c
- 50c Almond Cream Soap . . . 2 for 50c
- 50c After-Shaving Lotion . . . 2 for 50c
- 50c Exquisite Lotion . . . 2 for 50c
- 50c Brilliantine . . . 2 for 50c
- 35c Shaving Cream . . . 2 for 35c
- 50c Liquid Castile Shampoo . . . 2 for 50c
- 50c Tar Shampoo 2 for 50c
- 50c Coconut Oil Shampoo . . . 2 for 50c
- 25c Dental Cream 2 for 25c

Quigley's Pharmacy

You are always welcome.

Thanks to each of you who responded in the "Name the Coffee Shop Contest" . . . to everyone who ate with us on Opening Day . . . and thanks especially to you who came in after the Turkey was "sold out" and were so nice about accepting a substitute.

We aim to please you—we want you to LIKE Colonial food—so we buy the Best . . . set prices students can afford to pay . . . serve you quickly—and ask YOU to be the judge.

Breakfast, 15 to 25 Lunch, 25 to 35 Dinner, 35 to 40

Operated By G.W. Students FOR G.W. Students

COLONIAL Coffee Shop

20th and Penn. Ave.

OPEN ALL NIGHT

Pixleemen Downed By C. C. N. Y., 37-26, In Gotham Tourney

Colonials Hold New York Five to 14-13 at Half; 20,000
Fans See Game

Before a crowd of 20,000 basketball fans in New York's Madison Square Garden, George Washington dropped a spectacular tourney-climaxing contest to the City College of New York five, 37-26. The final game on the day's card of seven, this battle was a fitting finish to the basketball show arranged for the benefit of the unemployed and needy.

In defeating the Colonials on Washington's birthday, the C. C. N. Y. quint won the gold cup awarded the day's outstanding victor. George Washington pushed the Nat Holman-coached team from the start and played in fine form throughout, but the winners were simply a better team.

Using the professional style featured by the world-renowned Nat in his hey-day, the City College five was held on even terms in the first twenty minutes of play, but in the second half steadily increased its one point lead from 14-13 with eight points in succession before the Colonials tallied again. Forrest Burgess temporarily put G. W. in the van just before this spurge with the game's outstanding shot, a long, looping, swisher that began from mid-court and terminated in a crowd-raising two-point.

Fast passing and generally good, exciting play marked the game. Although clearly outclassed in the last ten minutes of action, the Colonials began a rally which seemed to spur the New Yorkers on to greater heights. Characteristic of all champions, the winners timed their play in relation to George Washington's. When Zahn & Co. got hot for a few seconds, their opponents did likewise, thus holding the advantage and saving their strength.

The game was not one in which the play of any individual stood out. Captain Moe Spahn at guard headed the victor's attack with 13 points and in each department of play excelled. Goldman, C. C. N. Y. center, was second in scoring for his squad with 10 points while Jimmy Howell topped the Colonials with the same number.

Geo. Wash.	C. C. N. Y.	City College	G. F. G. P.
Howell, Jr.	10	Benson, Jr.	10
Burgess, Jr.	10	Travis, Jr.	10
Hertel, Jr.	10	Goldman, Jr.	10
Manan, Jr.	10	Wishnits, Jr.	10
Spahn, Jr.	10	Goldsmith, Jr.	10
Zahn, Jr.	10	Shelton, Jr.	10
Chambers, Jr.	10	Kelley, Jr.	10
		Winograd, Jr.	10
		Levine, Jr.	10
		Spahn, Jr.	10
		Kate, Jr.	10

Totals..... 4 26      Totals..... 17 37
Referee—Jack Murray. Umpire—Dick Meahan.

Spring Football Call Sounds for Varsity

Senior-Varsity Game to Climax
Five Week's Session
Beginning March 15

Coaches Pixlee and Walsh gave notice today of their intention to issue the first call for varsity football spring practice to start March 15.

They are giving advance notice so that any hopefuls and all of the old-timers will have a chance to get in fairly good shape before the time comes to don the moleskins for the practice sessions, for they wish to get started on the hard work as soon as possible.

The present plans are to hold five practice sessions a week, weather permitting; and the entire practice season is to extend over a period of four or five weeks. Coach Pixlee hopes to find among the newly eligible men ample replacements for the ten seniors who are graduating this spring.

As a culmination of spring practice, a game is planned for some time late in April. The seniors will oppose all of the other varsity men in a struggle which promises local fans their first taste of football for 1933, besides giving a slant on prospects for next fall. All spring practice sessions will be held in Potomac Park.

Old Times Recalled As Senior Cagemen Prepare for Finale

In the final basket ball game of the season the undergraduate members of the varsity and the seniors will meet in battle on Thursday night. The "Tin Tabernacle," the scene of many gory encounters, will house the season's climax.

Professional rules by the Basket Ball Players' Association, blended with quotations from the Marquis of Queensbury regulations, will furnish a code for the contest. Admission to the game will be 25 cents; there will be no complimentary tickets; and the players will each contribute two bits to the jackpot.

All funds collected at the gate will be used as a sinking fund to support the Varsity Club farewell party which will be given early in the spring. The game will start at 8 p. m. Late comers will probably face the SRO sign.

The senior-varsity will be composed of the same men that two years ago went through a fifteen-game schedule with only four defeats. Burgess and Mulvey as forwards, Chambers as center, and Zahn and Fenlon as guards, will start for the Grads. Howell, Wray, Hertel, Parrish, and Noonan will start for the Under-Grads; Lee Carlin will comprise the reserve strength.

Five New Records Made As Colonials Tie Duke Mermen

Five records were broken in a tank meet that ended 33-33 between George Washington and Duke at the Ambassador Hotel pool Friday night. The Colonial mermen succeeded in tying Duke's undefeated squad when Captain Max Rote set a new mark in both the 50 and 100-yard free style and Dwyer Ghormley shattered the 200-yard breaststroke record. Two other records were made in the 440-yard free style, and the 150-yard backstroke by Duke swimmers.

The Colonials, in their last meet of the season, missed a victory only after the judges, with hesitance, awarded Duke first place in the close 200-yard relay.

Summary:
200-yard Relay—Duke University. Time, 1:35.
Diving—First, Ghormley (G. W.); second, Young (Duke); third, Fischel (Duke).

50-yard Free Style—First, Rote (G. W.); second, Losee (Duke); third, Vedder (G. W.). Time, 23.4. Record.
440-yard Free Style—First, Carter (Duke); second, Burnside (G. W.); third, Vartia (G. W.). Time, 5:43. New record.

150-yard Breaststroke—First, Ghormley (G. W.); second, Tennat (Duke); third, McAnally (Duke). Time, 2:46. New record.

100-yard Free Style—First, Rote (G. W.); second, T. Losee (Duke); third, B. Losee (Duke). Time, 53.1. New record.

Intramural Managers

Coach Jean Sexton, in charge of intramurals, announces that there are still five managerial positions open for the coming intramural baseball series. Managers for teams representing Columbian College, Pharmacy School, Law School, Engineering College and the Pre-Meds have not yet been selected.

Managers must be enrolled in the school whose team they are to manage. Applicants should apply to Sexton at the gymnasium.

As soon as these five managers are appointed the schedule will be drawn up.

Leaders Unchanged As Greek Bowlers Finish Third Week

Dogfight Contest Existing in League A, While Two Teams
Dominate Play in League B

Completion of third-round matches in the Greek bowling tourney finds the league leads still in the hands of Theta Upsilon Omega and Delta Tau Delta pinmen. T. U. O. won two out of three in its important match with Sigma Nu. This contest featured excellent bowling, with both teams registering consistent 500 sets. Wildes garnered most of the honors with a 132 game and 344 set. The Delta bowlers swept all three games from K. A., but were pushed to win the third game by two pins. Keller's game of 127 greatly aided the Delta cause.

STANDINGS
LEAGUE A
D. T. D.	W.	L.	Pct.
P. S. K.	3	1	.750
S. N.	3	1	.750
K. A.	3	1	.750
S. A. E.	3	1	.750
S. X.	1	3	.250

LEAGUE B
D. T. M.	W.	L.	Pct.
S. M. S.	3	1	.750
A. S. E.	3	1	.750
S. P. E.	3	1	.750
K. A.	3	1	.750
T. D. X.	1	3	.250

No matches March 4.
By winning three games from S. P. E., S. M. S. held its runner-up position within striking distance of the leaders. Led by Hoffman's 320 set, S. M. S. was pressed only in the second game, winning by seven pins. Phi Sig was forced to roll off a tie to win its two out of three from S. A. E. Hoover and Muth vied for honors with 341 sets.

Kappa Sigs Victorious
Kappa Sig pinmen retained their erratic nature by sweeping three games from Sigma Chi and remaining in a third-place tie with Sigma Nu. Theta Delta Chi won its first match of the series in taking two out of three from Acacia. Jones' 133 game, high of the evening, was instrumental in the victory.

With only two rounds remaining, the standings in the two leagues are quite different. In League A, T. U. O. has a one-game lead with three teams in the

Delaware Tonight

Colonial Basketers Complete
Regular Schedule Against
Newark Team

After returning from the tourney in New York last Wednesday, Coaches Pixlee and O'Leary started northward to Newark, Delaware, this morning with their Colonial Basketball team, where they will face the strong University of Delaware quint tonight in the last regularly scheduled game for the Buff and Blue.

This game marks the end of the regular season for the locals, finishing one of the most successful years that they have had. However due to the good showing the Colonials have made in the East this year, there is a chance that they will be invited to participate in the national meet held in Kansas City early in March.

The entire squad will make the trip to Newark. All are in good physical condition with the exception of Capt. "Otto" Zahn, who is still nursing a broken nose sustained in the St. John's of Annapolis game. The coaches stated that he will see some action during the game, however. The Pixleemen vow that they are out to avenge the defeat suffered last week, and are hopeful of closing the year with a victory over their strong northern opponents.

Delaware has a good record for the year, and with its fast-breaking type of offense, should furnish the Colonials with some high class competition.

Running, while League B is being dominated by two teams, D. T. D. and S. M. S.

There will be no matches this Saturday due to inaugural festivities. Bowling will be resumed on March 11.

Attention, Students!

Jean Sexton announces to all students enrolled in required physical education that the medical examination will be given again this week. New students and those who have not taken the examination to date, must arrange with Sexton to do so at once. Credit can not be given to any student in the required classes until this examination has been taken.

Yearlings Drop Final Game to Easterners

Ring down the curtain on their season's court activities, the frosh bowed to Eastern, 52-30, without much resistance on Friday, February 24.

The quint couldn't seem to cope with Eastern's small, fast five, and the score at half was 26-12. Led by Kane, Walsh's men put up more of a battle in the second period, almost holding the enemy even in the matter of scoring.

Kane was high for the game with 15 points, while Waters and Davis did the most damage for the visitors.

C. C. N. Y. May Play In '34 Court Contest

Negotiations for Next Year's Game Took Place After Recent Contest in Garden

By JOHN BUSICK

The City College of New York basketball team, winners of the cup awarded the outstanding team in the mayor's charity show on Washington's Birthday in Madison Square Garden, will undoubtedly be hosts to George Washington in Gotham again next year. Negotiations for a regularly scheduled game between the two teams followed their meeting in the Garden last week.

Although defeated by the New Yorkers, the Colonials staged a fine battle in losing and until late in the contest were in a position to score an upset. Coached by the famous professional player, Nat Holman, the City College quint went through a heavy schedule with a single defeat, that to St. John's of Brooklyn.

Exhibiting such a strong team with an excellent record for the past two years has placed C. C. N. Y. court squads in the top group of Eastern colleges. Immediately after the meeting between the teams in the garden, City College officials expressed their desire to have George Washington come to New York next season as their guests.

In all likelihood this game will be one of a series and will make an auspicious debut in the Gotham town with a possibility of a game with St. John's of Brooklyn being played on the same trip.

Colonials Vanquish V. M. I. Rifle Team

Buff and Blue First Marksmen to Defeat Virginians

Colonial riflemen, in their first shoulder-to-shoulder match, easily out-shot V. M. I.'s undefeated squad, 1330 to 1251, last Saturday. Every G. W. man participating outpointed the Virginians, who are considered one of the best teams in the league. Brylawski and Neal, shooting for the Buff and Blue, were the high shots with 270 and 268, respectively.

Members of the V. M. I. rifle team were guests of the George Washington squad at the Ambassador Hotel, while Georgetown and Maryland were hosts to the Virginians on Thursday and Friday, respectively.

After the match the Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority acted as hostess to the V. M. I. riflemen in Corcoran Hall.

Geo. Wash.	P	K	S	Total
Brylawski	98	93	79	270
Neal	99	87	82	268
And	95	93	78	266
Fletcher	98	86	79	263
Laudman	97	92	74	263

V. M. I.	P	K	S	Total
Veasey	96	85	77	258
Dingman	95	87	73	255
McCrary	95	88	68	251
Archer	95	88	86	269
Brayshaw	97	53	68	218

A telegraphic meet between G. W. and Georgetown was held, but no scores have been received. The next telegraphic meet comes this week against the Navy. A shoulder-to-shoulder match will be held on March 11 against the sailors.

JENNER'S
1819 G Street

Lunch ..... 25c
Dinner ..... 35c

Both will please you

People know it..

"Chesterfields Satisfy"

WHEN smokers keep buying the same cigarette day after day... it's a pretty good sign that they're getting what they want... mildness, better taste—a smoke that's always the same.

So we're going right on making Chesterfields just as we always have... selecting choice, ripe tobaccos... ageing them... blending and cross-blending them... making them into cigarettes in the most scientific ways that are known.

As long as we do these things we know that smokers will continue to say, "They Satisfy". For that's what people are saying about Chesterfields.

If you smoke, why not find out about them? A package or two will tell you the whole story.

Chesterfield

THEY'RE Milder —
THEY TASTE BETTER

© 1933, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

SOCIETY

Inaugural Dance by Pledge Council Is Feature of Week's Coming Events; Initiations, Pledgings Are Announced

Masquerade, Jig-saw Puzzle Party, Dances Held During Past Week

With March 4 approaching and a number of students planning to attend the Inaugural Ball Saturday night, few social affairs are being arranged for the coming week end. Several house dances, including the forty-first birthday celebration of Kappa Sigma, occupied last week's spotlight.

Interfraternity Pledge Council to Give Inaugural Dance

On the eve of Inauguration Day, Friday, March 3, a dance will be held at the Sigma Nu house, sponsored by the Interfraternity Pledge Council. Music by Knapp-Davis will last from 10 to 1. The committee in charge of arrangements is headed by George Hawse, social chairman of the council.

The Minerva Club of Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave a dance at the chapter house Tuesday evening, February 21. Howard Texter's orchestra furnished the music.

Kappa Sigma entertained at a dance in honor of the forty-first birthday of the local chapter, Saturday, February 25.

ORCHESTRA MUSIC With 45c Dinner 6 to 8 P. M.

If you like the new idea of good music with a good 45 cent dinner, waitress service, and no tipping—may we anticipate serving you?

THE
MCREYNOLDS
187 AT G STREET
SUNDAY DINNER 45c

Get Your Text Books at LOWDERMILK'S 1418 F ST.

JULIUS GARFINKEL & CO.
F STREET AT 14th

is headquarters for COLLEGE MEN

Complete stocks of choice
SUITS, OVERCOATS, HATS, SHOES,
SPORTSWEAR, DINNER AND ALL
FURNISHINGS
all the best... from most expert tailors
COME IN AS OFTEN AS YOU CAN

Maiden Form's "FULL-FASHION" Brassiere

Seamless breast sections shaped to perfection by
"fashion-points" similar to those in fine hosiery

"Full-Fashion" is the modern brassiere for the modern girl—without a seam to mar the "skin-smoothness" of its skillfully shaped breast sections. Yet "Full-Fashion" controls perfectly because it is permanently blocked to keep its lovely uplift contours. In styles for different figure types. If your local shops cannot supply you, write Dept. C for booklet. Maiden Form Brassiere Co., Inc. 245 Fifth Avenue, New York. AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

LOOK FOR THE NAME
MAIDEN FORM
BRASSIERES
SINGLES - GARTERS - BELTS

25. The feature of the evening was an enormous cake decorated in the fraternity colors, scarlet, green, and white, and boasting forty-one candles. Gerry Smitskamp's Silver Crescents furnished the music. Among the guests were the two Losee brothers, members of the Duke University swimming team.

Acacia entertained its members and friends with an informal dance at the house Saturday, February 25, from 10 to 1 o'clock. Music was by Dagmoir.

A dance was held in honor of the new initiates of T. U. O. at the chapter house on Tuesday evening, February 21. Emory Daugherty's band played for the affair.

Sigma Mu Sigma held a George Washington Birthday dance Tuesday night, February 21.

A formal dance was given by the pledges of Chi Omega in honor of the active chapter at Bethesda Women's Club on February 24.

Alpha Epsilon Phi held a subscription dance in Corcoran Hall Friday evening, February 24.

Fraternities and Sororities Hold Initiation Ceremonies

Phi Sigma Sigma announces the initiation of Alice Albert, Lenora Easterson, Maxine Kahn, Rita Rubenstein, and Miriam Rothstein. The ceremony took place at Rosdhu Castle on February 21, and was followed by a banquet and dance in keeping with the medieval atmosphere.

Sigma Phi Epsilon announces the formal initiation last evening of Charles A. Bell, Ryland C. Bryant, Jr., George Hawse, and William Wells.

Zeta Tau Alpha announces the initiation of Dorothy Catling and Anne Lou Harrison, Sunday afternoon, February 26. The ceremony was followed by a tea given in honor of the new initiates at the home of Mrs. Ada Hess, president of Alpha province.

Delta Tau Delta announces the formal initiation Sunday afternoon, February 26, of Donald Frank Blake, Charles Richard Creighton, William Anton Heine, Carroll Blue Nash, and Kenneth Walter Patrum.

Alpha Delta, of Delta Zeta, announces the initiation of Frances Crawford, Marjorie Dengler, Frances MacMaugh, Louise Mayo, and Louise Shoemaker. The ceremony took place on Sunday afternoon February 26, at the sorority apartment, and was followed by a banquet at the Kennedy-Warren. Helen Lyon, active, who had the highest scholastic standing last semester, presented the Ladd Trophy for scholarship to Frances Crawford, who attained first place scholastically among the pledges last semester.

Sigma Chi announces the formal initiation of Samuel Hamilton Walker III, Edward Crawford Kemper, Jr., William Water Lemerson, Wilbur Wilson Langtry, Jr., Kent Duval Algire, An-draw MacFarlane Knappen, and Frederick Bryan Bullard, on Saturday, February 18.

Pledges Announced by Social Organizations

Zeta Tau Alpha announces the formal pledging of Helen Martin and Adelaide Woodley, Monday, February 27, in the rooms.

Sigma Mu Sigma announces the formal pledging of J. Allen Crocker.

Sigma Chi announces the formal pledging of Katherine Kramer in its Newton Paisley, Vernon Goodrich, Edward Parleton, Graham Lucas, and Don Candland.

Alpha Delta Pi announces the formal pledging of Katherine Kramer in their rooms, Friday, February 24.

Theta Delta Chi announces the formal pledging of Howard E. Collins, Sunday, February 26.

Alpha Delta Theta announces the formal pledging of Lila Lopez and Janet MacDonald on Tuesday night, February 21.

Chi Omega Entertains National President

Mrs. Mary Love Collins, national president of Chi Omega, was entertained by Phi Alpha chapter, February 20, at a tea in its rooms. Mrs. Virginia Barrows, Dean Henry Grattan Doyle, Provost William Allen Wilbur, Dr. Louis Kayser, and Professor Dudley Willard were among the guests.

Alpha Mu Sigma attended the G. W. U.-C. N. Y. basketball game en masse. Transportation was by auto.

The Baptist Students' Union had a Valentine party Tuesday, February 17, at the National Baptist Memorial Church. A one-act play, "The Evolution of Love," was presented.

A swimming party at the Ambassador Hotel was attended by members of the Colonial Campus Club.

Alpha Delta Theta active and rushes enjoyed a jig-saw puzzle party at the home of Deborah Daniel, Tuesday, February 14.

Congressman Zioncheck and his mother, of the State of Washington, were dinner guests at the Acacia house on Sunday.

Harold Handley, Delta Tau Delta from Indiana University, is visiting the chapter here.

Alpha Delta Pi entertained Hilda Avant, of Louisiana, at supper in the rooms Monday night.

Personals

Mary Emily Thomas entertained Virginia MacDonnell, Marianne Stamm, Elizabeth Sherier, and Helen Waters at a card party Friday afternoon at her home in the Mayfair apartments.

Betty and Trimble Sawtelle entertained a group of friends at a masquerade party at their home in Chevy Chase Saturday night, February 25. G. W. U.-ites present were Kathryn Dille, Harriet Atwell, Peggy Silber, Nance Hall, Betty Rose, Charlie Touchton, Mel Law, Bill Claudy, Lou Malkus, Demi Blackstone, C. Manley Fester, and Bob Savage.

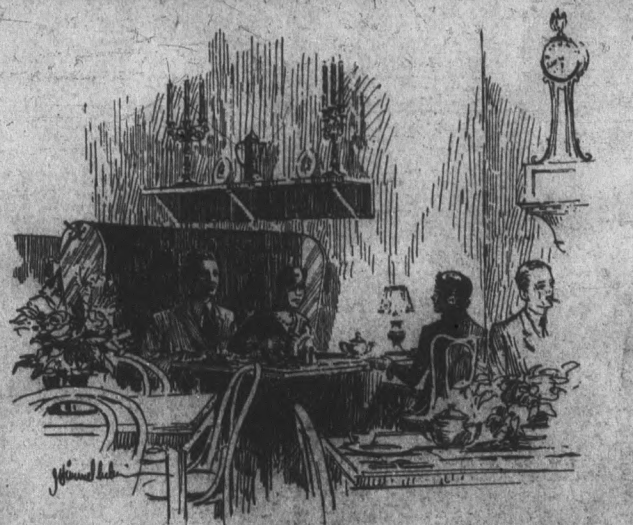

Edna Kimberly, Don Blake, and Harold Hanley were recent guests at White House receptions.

Virginia Jones left Saturday to attend the Junior Prom at Yale.

Anne Nelson and Katherine Welling attended the Southern Conference boxing matches and dances at the University of Virginia the week end of the twenty-fifth.

Make reservations
now for
INAUGURAL
Party — Callo-
way's Red Hot
Rhythm Boys.
10TH and U STS. N.W.

Spectacular Sepia
Review 12 M.
2:30 A. M.
No Cover
Charge

Tea Leaves
Read Saturday
Eve While
You Dine

The New
Clever
Cafeteria
1715 G ST. N.W.

Breakfast

Lunch

Dinner

League Victors Bowl Final Game Tonight

Chi Omega, Kappa Delta, and Alpha Delta Pi to Roll Intramural Finals

As a result of last week's matches Chi Omega, Kappa Delta, and Alpha Delta Pi carried away the titles of league winners in the women's intramural bowling tournament. These teams will meet tonight at the K street Y. W. C. A. to roll the finals which will decide the tournament winner.

Matches rolled Tuesday and Thursday last week gave victories to Phi Delta, 226, over Alpha Delta Theta, 200; to Sigma Kappa, 209, over Chi Omega, 199; to Alpha Delta Pi, 237, over Alpha Delta Theta, 212; and to Phi Delta, 234, over Zeta Tau Alpha, 192.

A basketball tournament is scheduled for intramural teams during March with practice periods beginning Wednesday, March 1. Elinore Grollman is in charge of this tournament.

Dancing Symposium Is Presented Here

"Grotesques," humorous presentation given to modern music by members of Orchis, dancing club at George Washington, was one of the main features of the Dance Symposium given last Saturday afternoon in Pierce Hall of the All Soul's Church. The girls who participated in this number were: Bettie Elfelt, Grace Haley, Eleanor Heller, Mary Brooks Haley, Helen Chafee, Amalie Preische, and Mary Lee Watkins.

In contrast to the fantastic movements of this number, a pantomime of the nursery rhyme, "Mary Had a Little Lamb," was given. Fundamental movements demonstrating the dancing technique used at George Washington University were given by major students in the women's physical education department.

"Pharaoh, Let My People Go," the Biblical story, was effectively interpreted through rhythmic dancing and singing by representatives of Frederickburg Normal School. A weird Indian dance accompanied by tom-toms was cleverly presented by women from Goucher College. They also gave a comical skit depicting an organ-grinder and his monkey.

Hood College women gave an interesting interpretation of their dancing fundamentals through a use of nursery rhymes. The groups from Maryland University and Marjorie Webster School presented original dances worked out by the students. All of the groups gave demonstrations of fundamentals accompanied by explanatory talks by the instructor.

Catherine Fox and Janet Feiker poured at the tea following the dance symposium.

Columbian Women to Give Curtains to Lambie House

Lambie House will receive a partial renovation when the Columbian Women present it with a series of block linen curtains for the room-high windows. Mrs. John Russell McNitt, in charge of the Columbian Women committee, selected curtains of rose and green to blend with the furniture in the Lambie House rooms.

Few girls are satisfied with their looks. One has lovely hair and eyes, but is sure her unshapely nose spoils her appearance. In reality her nose would be all right if she would avoid the tiny pull-ons and unbrimmed hats and adopt a more balanced style of hair dressing.

Another girl worries because the color of her hair doesn't go with her skin, not realizing that nature has given her a distinct advantage by offering her this chance to create, by clever use of colors, an individuality all her own. For instance, if her hair is a light indeterminate shade of brown and her skin is dark, she can wear vivid colors such as orange, green, and deep, rich reds. And she can help create an attractive cosmetic ensemble by clever application of the new peachbloom powder and red poppy rouge and lipstick. The powder will give needed life and glow to her dark skin while the red poppy color will high-light her personality and harmonize charmingly with her costume.

If your skin is your one beauty, clear and fine-textured, play up to it. Choose your colors that bring out your skin tones. If your skin is fair, wear black to show up its fairness and blue to make your eyes seem bluer. Wear a red coral color for cheeks and lips, a cream or rachel powder and for evening you may faintly shadow your eyes with blue.

If you have red hair and green eyes, make the most of it. Wear reddish browns to bring out the red lights in your hair and green accessories to make your eyes greener. You can wear black, too, and green and creamy white. And when you dress up for very special occasions a vivid red geranium for color, and a touch of green eye-shadow.

For added information about make-up, new, subtle and flattering, write to Helena Rubinstein (Personal Service), 8 East Fifty-seventh street, New York City.

Authorized Events

The following social functions have been authorized for the coming week by the calendar committee of the Student Council:

Tuesday, February 28
Newman Club, 1326 Massachusetts avenue.

Friday, March 3
Freshman-Soph Medical School dance, Corcoran Hall.

Interfraternity Pledge Council Scrip dance at Sigma Nu House.

Saturday, March 4
Phi Sigma Kappa radio party.

Did You See?

Virginia Hawkins at the Acacia party in a dress of two lovely shades of blue? This is another of her own creations as was the matching hat. They were both made of crepe, one shade a light soft blue very similar to the new "Eleanor blue," the other a darker—almost navy—blue. The whole outfit presented a striking contrast to her coloring.

Betty Rose at the Chi O dance in a black and white satin evening dress with a short fringed jacket? Black satin sandals and a white satin turban together with a black velvet wrap trimmed in white fur made it a smart ensemble.

Eleanor Heller at The Hatchet office in a gray flat crepe dress with a cowl neck and a cape of navy blue quilted material fastened to the dress with two large silver buttons? A small navy blue turban with a silver ornament completed the outfit.

Harriet Atwell at Trimble and Betty Sawtelle's costume dance in a lovely old dress of the gay nineties. It was wasp-waisted and bustled, and the material was a gray and black broadcloth with a real lace collar. A charming old cameo brooch and earrings were the ornaments she wore.

Kitty Phelps about the campus in a scarlet wool sports dress with a beige satin collar and trimmed with large brown wooden buttons and a small felt hat of scarlet with brown accessories?

Dot Willard at the Acacia dance in a dark green velvet informal dress with long tight sleeves and a small green velvet turban with a nose length veil?

"Toots" Herman Sunday night in a smart stress dress of henna and black crepe? The henna top had a surprise neck and was fastened with a silver pin. Black shoes and a small black hat completed her outfit.

DILLE.

Women's Sport Calendar

The following events of interest to sportswomen are scheduled for the current week:

Tuesday, February 28, 7:30 p. m. K street Y. W. C. A. Finals of the Intramural bowling tournament. Chi Omega vs. Alpha Delta Pi. Kappa Delta vs. Alpha Delta Pi.

Wednesday, March 1, 7:30 p. m. Gymnasium. Interclass basket ball. Freshman vs. Senior; Junior vs. Sophomore.

Thursday, March 2, 7:45 p. m. Old Church on H street. Interclass volleyball. Freshman vs. Senior; Junior vs. Sophomore.

Troubadours' Trio Sings Over WMAL

Habitual listeners to WMAL as well as those who heard the Troubadours' presentation of "Oh! Say Can't You See?" seem to have remembered the feminine trio which first appeared in that production. So well, indeed were they remembered, that the station officials at WMAL asked them to broadcast a second time, to which request they complied most heartily last Wednesday evening, February 22.

As a welcome relief from the epidemic of "George Washington's Favorites" and "Colonial Day Favorites" that swamped the program that day, as many of us will recall, the trio, composed of Grace Giffen, soprano, Margaret Gilligan, contralto, and Annabelle McCullough, mezzo-soprano, gave a fifteen minute program of popular songs. The selections were: "How Much Do I Love You?", "Just Because You're You," "Black-Eyed Susan Brown," and "Willow Weep for Me."

Bill Claudy, the trio's popular accompanist, gave "The Limehouse Blues" as a solo.

The trio (and accompanist) have been getting the thrill of extensive fan mail, and there would be very little surprise if the WMAL officials decided to call on them again in the very near future.

Frosh-Soph Women Win in Volley Ball

The women's volley ball tournament progressed another lap Thursday, February 23, with the playing of the following games: Sophomores vs. seniors, juniors vs. freshmen.

The sophomores swamped the seniors 52 to 32, while the freshmen barely managed to squeeze through with a 44 to 41 victory over the juniors.

Next Thursday, March 2, the seniors meet the freshmen and the sophomores volley with the juniors. All games are scheduled for 7:45 p. m., and will be played in the church on H street.

Virginia Gummel, senior, Rhoda Blose, sophomore, and Anna Koons, freshman, have been elected captains of their respective teams. Agnes Rodgers coaches the teams and Helen Mitchell is managing the sport.

Juniors, Sophomores Meet for Class Title

Final Games in Women's Basketball Contest Scheduled for Tonight

Junior and sophomore class basketball teams will meet in the gymnasium March 1 at 7:30 o'clock to decide the class championship. The juniors and sophomores have defeated their opponents in the first two rounds of the tournament and the undefeated class teams will meet for the first time. The freshman and senior teams will play their final game of the class tournament the same evening.

In the second round of the class basketball contest played last Tuesday night, February 21, the junior and sophomore teams were victors over the freshmen and seniors in two hard-fought games. The sophomores won over the seniors by 15-6, while the juniors completely swamped the freshmen with a score of 20-2.

The sophomores led with a score of 4-0 at the end of the first quarter despite the excellent work of Katherine Wassaman and Dot Wilson, senior guards. Through the brilliant work of the sophomore forward, Mary Haley, they continued to gain steadily and the final whistle showed the sophomores with a 15-point lead over the 6 points of the senior team.

Although the first period of the junior-freshman game ended with only a 3-2 lead in favor of the juniors, the consistently hard playing of Mary Lee Watkins and Louise Cox, junior guards, kept the freshmen from scoring again. The game ended with a decision of 20-2 in favor of the juniors.

Lunch to Be Served By Cooking Classes

On every Tuesday and Thursday in March, beginning March 7, the class in lunchroom management of the home economics department, will serve cafeteria lunch between 11:30 a. m. and 1 p. m. in Building C.

The menu will be complete, including vegetables, fruits, salads, sandwiches, desserts, tea, coffee, milk and cocoa. All portions will be 5 and 10 cents; hot plate luncheon will be 25 cents. Daily menus will be posted in all main University buildings.

Women's Rifle Team Shoots in National

During the past week the George Washington University women's rifle team shot the second stage in the competition for the national intercollegiate team championship. The scores made were as follows:

Ruth White	197
Evelyn Kerr	196
Naomi Myers	196
Mary Louise Yauch	196
Josephine Rayson	195

The third stage is now being shot, in order to complete the match to March 1.

Mischa Elman Plays At Inaugural Concert

Washington's round of Inaugural festivities will get under way at Constitution Hall, Thursday, March 2, when Mischa Elman, noted violin virtuoso, makes his bow with Hans Kindler and the National Symphony Orchestra. This concert will mark Elman's only appearance in the Capital this season.

Considered, by authorities, as one of the few truly great violinists of all time, Elman never fails to provide an interesting and colorful performance. Thursday's concert serves as a forerunner to the official inaugural concert to be given the following evening, when Lawrence Tibbett, Rosa Ponselle, Metropolitan Opera stars; Efram Zimbalist, famous violinist; and the National Symphony Orchestra, under Hans Kindler's baton, will share the program.

The PARK LANE Inn

312 and Pa. Ave. N. W.
Breakfast—Luncheon—Dinner
Open Sundays and Holidays
Mrs. H. Pieper, Proprietress

... it's the
"nuts"!

the new

DOLLAR DINNER

at

Club Michel

NO. 1 THOMAS CIRCLE
Phone National 2930

• 6 to 9:30 every nite!
• Dancing!
• Floor Show!

... all for a dollar!

Northwestern Dean Praises New Book By Dean Van Vleck

"The Administrative Control of Aliens Called Masterly in Iowa Law Review"

Characterizing the work as "masterly," John H. Wigmore, dean of the Northwestern University School of Law, writes a praiseworthy review of Dean William C. Van Vleck's book, "The Administrative Control of Aliens." The review is contained in the January issue of the Iowa Law Review.

"Professor Van Vleck's book is a masterly monograph. It is judicial, thorough, lucid, well documented. It might well serve as the sufficient work of reference on the subject. It is a book to depend upon. It is not emotionally biased as are some writings on this subject. It does not generalize too broadly from a few instances as do so many of our ambitious scientists. It is a book to start from, in proposals of improved methods," writes the noted authority on Legal Evidence.

The book referred to was written by Dean Van Vleck for the Commonwealth Publishing company, after 12 years of research. It was completed while the dean was on sabbatical leave and has received favorable comment in the Harvard, Pennsylvania, Cornell, California, United States, George Washington, and Iowa law reviews.

Californian Reviews Book Emphasizing the extent of its thoroughness, Professor D. O. McGoon of the University of California School of Jurisprudence writes in a review of it:

"The author has given a thorough discussion of all the aspects of the exclusion and expulsion procedures. He studied the records in the Department of Labor in 500 exclusion and 500 expulsion cases. This study gave him direct evidence of the quality of work done by various functionaries and of the practical working of the system; and gave him also a wealth of concrete illustrations which he passes on to the reader."

Judge John C. Knox of the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, writing in the Harvard Law Review, states:

"Those who are familiar with the administration of our immigration laws cannot help but be impressed by the earnestness and fairness with which the Dean has presented the best and worst of our system of alien control. . . . When the Dean comes to the presentation of his conclusions and suggestions, his possession of judicial temperament is made manifest. The author becomes neither vituperative nor maudlin. The dean has made a valuable contribution to the study of our alien problem."

This is the first book which Dean Van Vleck has written.

LEGISLATORS AROUSE EDITORS BY PASSING WENZL'S RESOLUTION

(Continued from Page 1.) of extensive investigations into campus activities in an effort to facilitate better cooperation between the several University organizations. The editors of The Hatchet, who participated in these hearings at the invitation of the Student Council, expressed the view that the most progressive move that that body could make would be to permit a selected Hatchet reporter to record Student Council proceedings in order that it might present an unbiased view of its activities.

Objection was made to this proposal by Haley on the grounds that at times it was undesirable to have council proceedings made public. The editors refuted this objection, stating that, as is done in all legislative bodies, the Council could resort to the usual practice of executive session or secret caucus, when occasion demanded.

Editors Amazed The editors left the hearing confident that their proposal would be favorably acted upon. It was with consternation that The Hatchet received the announcement of the Wednesday night resolution.

"I was amazed," said Associate Editor Walter Rhinehart, "when I heard the report of the Council meeting. I felt certain that a proposal so beneficial to the prestige of this organization would not be denied. It is entirely foreign to the usual American policy in regard to legislative procedure in regard to journalism."

Associate Editor John T. Madigan said:

"Members of the Student Council have so long dreamed of power that they have come to imagine they possess it. They have forgotten that the students who elected them have a right to know what they are doing. Their Constitution gives them no power to suppress the publication of their proceedings."

President Elton Billings in an interview today reflected the attitude of the Student Council but it is understood that he was personally opposed to the Wenzl resolution. President Billings expressed approval, at the Council hearings, of The Hatchet proposal. Billings left the impression that the Council representatives were not cognizant of the importance of the issue under discussion.

Georgians Too Clean Students living in one of the dormitories at the University of Georgia were recently warned if they did not refrain from taking so many baths they would be charged an extra fee.

THE SPIANS PREPARE COMING PRODUCTION AS CAST IS CHOSEN

(Continued from Page 1.)

Richmond is a Cue and Curtain veteran, having had the lead in its last production, while Margaret Gilligan and Adele Gusack are both familiar figures in University dramatic circles. Ruth Molyneux's record of superlative delineations in past performance was a major factor in her selection. Karl Gay and Joe Danzansky are likewise familiar to collegiate theatre-goers. That smooth portrayal of suave gentlemen, Royal Gunnison, is one of the outstanding young actors in the club. Finally, Grant Van Demark, who will be long-remembered for his blustering characterization in "Cock Robin," will probably render in "The Romantic Young Lady" another role in his inimitable, windy fashion.

Stupendous Publicity Program A stupendous program of super-publicity has been mapped out, with a view to presenting this latest venture into drama in the best professional manner. The actual publicity, as planned, is the most ambitious ever attempted by Cue and Curtain. In addition to a vigorous campaign to be carried on in The Hatchet, the plans include handbills which will be distributed throughout all the high schools and the four universities in this vicinity.

Tire covers will be available to members of the club and their friends; display ads are to be posted in street cars and buses; a poster contest is to be initiated in the Washington high schools. A week before the play, the publicity staff intends to arrange a meeting between the Cue and Curtain cast and some professional cast playing in Washington at that time.

The daily papers will receive a large amount of publicity, which, it is hoped, will appeal to those interested in drama, but not attending the University. A speaking campaign will be carried out in all the high schools and in the University by the public-speaking department. A secret publicity stunt has been devised as a climax to the campaign, which will probably be one of the most novel affairs ever staged by a University organization.

Menorah Launches Oratorical Contest

University Invited to Participate in Competition for Silver Cup

A new forensic contest, open to all students of the University, is being launched by the Menorah Society. This year, the first, the contest will be oratorical in nature and the award will be a silver cup, offered by Dr. David Davis, associate in Otorhinolaryngology at the University Hospital.

As the purpose of the contest is to spread interest in Jewish culture and ideals, the subject of the speeches must be of Jewish interest. Outside of that, the topics are left to the contestants. The closing date for entry is March 10; for submission of manuscripts, April 10. The contest will be held the last part of April.

Rules for the contest are as follows:

1. The contest is open to all G. W. U. students.
2. The subject must be Jewish in theme but contestants are free to choose their own topics.
3. Maximum time for delivery of speech will be ten minutes.
4. Those desiring to enter the contest must submit their names to Miss Sylvia Werksman, 592 Park Road, or the office of the public speaking department, Building Q, third floor, by March 10.
5. Manuscripts must be in at the office of the public speaking department by April 10.
6. Speeches will be judged for content, composition, and delivery.
7. Judges will be announced later.

Cut Classes to Dance Administrators at Michigan State College have ruled that all students attending the formal dances may cut classes from 3 p. m. on the day of the dance, and all classes on the following morning.

Kennedy C. Watkins Wins D. A. R. Medal

Kennedy C. Watkins, valedictorian of his graduating class, June '32, was awarded the D. A. R. prize gold medal on February 22 for the best essay on the "Causes of the American Revolution." The presentation was made by Mrs. Harry C. Grove, State regent of the D. A. R., at the George Washington Memorial mass meeting which is sponsored, annually, by the Sons, Daughters, and Children of the American Revolution.

The memorial was attended by more than 2,000 persons, representing 99 patriotic groups and chapters throughout the United States. The address of the day was given by Major General Paul B. Malone, Third Corps Area commander who reviewed the military history of the Nation. The program opened with a concert by the Marine Band which was followed by "Massing of the Colors."

Watkins, also, has received the Colonial Dames award. He is now attending the University Law School.

Tau Epsilon Phi Celebrates Founders' Day With Banquet

The George Washington University chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity celebrated its first anniversary with a founders' day banquet at the Hamilton Hotel on Tuesday, February 21. Dr. Elmer Louis Kayser, professor of history, and Dr. Walter Jaeger, of the Maryland University faculty, were the guests of honor.

"Scholarship and Fraternities" was the subject of Dr. Kayser's address, while Dr. Jaeger lauded the scholastic attainments of the fraternity both at George Washington and Maryland universities.

At 12:30 the TEP Tattler, the fraternity scandal sheet, was distributed. Music by Bobby Ford's colored masters of syncopation furnished the dance rhythm until a late hour.

Men's Debate Squad Scores on Opponents

Local Orators Discuss Radio Control With Washington and Lee Men

Debating a team which could not meet the issues and which proffered the comic element to basic facts, Phillip Merryman and Wilburn West scored over James Moore and J. H. Landon, of Washington and Lee University in a no-decision debate, Thursday, in Stockton 10. The question was: "Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt the British System of Radio Control."

Washington and Lee, upholding the affirmative, used as their main point the fact that the present system of radio control was ruined by excess advertising. Moore, first speaker for the Virginia team, made assertions to this effect, but was continually interrupted by Landon, his teammate, who pushed him aside to announce the excellency of Burp soap, etc., to show the ridiculousness of so much advertising.

Merryman and West contended that government control would restrict freedom of speech and prevent the public from hearing what they want. He cited for example, the refusal of the British radio system to permit Gandhi to broadcast. Government control would mean a Federal radio tax amounting to $15 a set.

John W. Brandt, instructor in the chemistry department and member of Delta Sigma Rho, was chairman of the debate.

Phi Beta Kappa Won't Die According to statistics based on the life of 38,269 graduates of eastern colleges, and compiled by a national insurance company, the Phi Beta Kappa can expect to live two years longer than the major letterman.

STRAYER COLLEGE

721 Thirteenth St., Washington, D. C.

Supplement your liberal arts education with a specialized college-grade business training! Executive Secretarial courses qualify college students for responsible business positions.

Accounting and Business Administration courses leading to the B.C.S. and M.C.S. degrees offered in Strayer College of Accountancy. Able staff of C.F.A. instructors and attorneys at law.

Two Hundred Fifteen Colleges and Universities Represented by Annual Enrollment of 1600 Students.

Address Registrar for Catalog

A COLLEGIATE INSTITUTION For BUSINESS TRAINING

ILLUSION:

Look at this remarkable lady... with three lovely and perfect heads... all attached to a normal body. She appears to sit on the stage, with the lower part of her body concealed by flowers. She can wink, smile, and nod. She can talk, laugh, and sing—all at the same time. Thousands of people have seen this feat of magic and pronounced it a wonderful sight!

EXPLANATION:

Audiences used to pay an extra fee to go behind the scenes to see how this trick was worked. They discovered that the three-headed woman was merely a reflection in a mirror. The glass showed the heads of three girls but the body of only one. The other two were cleverly hidden so that only their heads showed in the mirror.

SOURCE: "Magic Stage Illusions and Scientific Diversions" by Albert A. Hopkins... Munn & Co., New York

CAMELS

Copyright, 1933, R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY

It's fun to be fooled — ...it's more fun to KNOW

This "three-headed woman" trick goes way back to the early days of magic.

Also old is the suggestion that protection for your throat and freedom from coughing can be achieved through some magic trick.

THE EXPLANATION: The easiest cigarette on your throat is the cigarette that is made from the choicest, ripe tobaccos. Cheap, raw tobaccos are, as you would naturally expect, harsh to the throat. Ripe, costly tobaccos are mild, mellow—gentle. The question is whether a cigarette is made from cheap tobacco or the more expensive grades.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

American men and women have smoked more billions of Camels than any other brand because of the appeal of more expensive tobaccos and matchless blending.

Won't you stack up your own experience with a cigarette made from milder, costlier tobaccos... against magic claims about "cigarettes and your throat"?

Try fresh Camels—in the air-tight, welded Humidor Pack that seals the freshness and coolness, the mildness and flavor of Camels... inside.

— NO TRICKS —
.. JUST COSTLIER TOBACCOS —
IN A MATCHLESS BLEND

Glee Club to Sing At Inaugural Ball

Men's Club Gives Program at New England State Society Dance

The George Washington University Men's Glee Club has accepted an invitation to sing at the Inaugural Ball, which will be held in the Washington Auditorium on Saturday night, March 4.

The club gave a short program at the ball of the New England States Society, given at the Hotel Washington on Washington's Birthday. Accompanied by the women's club, the men also gave a very successful concert before the recent banquet of the George Washington University Medical Society at the Mayflower.

In response to an announcement in the last issue of The Hatchet, several new first tenors have appeared for try-outs with the men's club.

Both clubs are working on a full evening's concert to be given at All Souls' Church in the near future.

CIRCLE THEATRE

2105 PENNA. AVE.

"Home of the Mirror Screen"

TUES.—"THE UNWRITTEN LAW." Grete Nissen, Lew Cody. Drama of unholiness in Hollywood.

WED.—"HEARTS OF HUMANITY." Jean Harlow in a struggle against fate. Grim tragedy and relieving comedy.

THURS. & FRI.—"FLESH." Wallace Beery makes you laugh through your tears.

SAT.—"ROBBERS' ROOST." Geo. O'Brien, Maureen O'Sullivan, in Zane Grey's romance of drama, bullets, and courage.

SUN. & MON.—"THEY JUST HAD TO GET MARRIED." Zane Grey, Fifi D'Orsay. A pack of laughs.

CHANGE

YOUR DIET FOR A NIGHT....

Try a new menu—a new kind of food tonight. The new

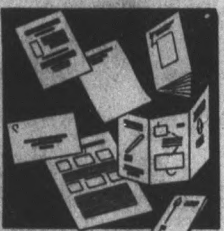

Nicholas 35 and 45-cent dinner.

for instance. It's different!

NICHOLAS FOOD SHOPPE

Opposite Y. M. C. A.

We PRINT

SOCIAL STATIONERY

YOUR stationery, printed here will create just the impression of refinement and good taste you desire.

Quick Service Moderate Prices

GIBSON Brothers, Inc.

1312 Eye St. N.W. Nat. 1237

Save Time Raise Grades

Here's a helpful ally that will rob your written work of its tediousness—you don't have to take our word for it—ask anyone who owns one. Or better, call us at District 1630 and we'll arrange for you to see for yourself.

The UNDERWOOD PORTABLE will save your time and add to the effectiveness of your essays, notes, and term papers.

Standard Keyboard Term Payments

Underwood ELLIOTT-FISHER CO.

1413 N. York Ave.

WHO'S WHO On The Campus

JOHN T. MADIGAN

The progress of The University Hatchet is personified in the efforts of John T. Madigan. His extra-curricular activity has been largely concentrated in its editorial office, where his ability and extensive knowledge of journalistic method is sincerely appreciated.

At present an associate editor of The Hatchet, Madigan has been a member of the staff since 1930, when he began as a junior reporter.

John's home is Dunkirk, N. Y. He entered The George Washington University in 1930 and is now registered in the Junior College, majoring in finance. Following graduation he will continue in the newspaper profession.

To further emphasize his journalistic efforts, he was elected president of the George Washington University chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalistic fraternity for men, for 1932-33. He was a member of the Cue and Curtain Club, holding the position of stage manager for "The Queen's Husband" and "The Contrast," given in 1932-33. He was a member of the Troubadour stage crew in his freshman and sophomore years.

The 1932-33 Cherry Tree will contain a feature section known as "The March of Events," of which he is editor. He was a member of the sports staff of the 1930-31 Cherry Tree.

"Dick Rollo," that enigma who has served The Hatchet long and faithfully, is quoted as characterizing John as—"One of the most competent persons ever to serve on the University Hatchet; a person with his pleasing personality would be difficult to find." John's campus popularity justifies Rollo's assertion.

His social fraternity is Theta Delta Chi.

Mortar and Pestle Gives Mid-Year Fete

The Mortar and Pestle Society of the School of Pharmacy will give its mid-year banquet and dance on March 15, according to James Edmondson, president of the organization.

This mid-year affair is the outstanding social event of the society. Among the pharmacists who will be present are Dr. William Paul Briggs, Dr. Raymond Smith, Dr. John Lee, Mr. Herbert Socks, former president, Dr. Bruce Phillips, president of the American Pharmaceutical Association, and Mr. Edward Smyser.

DR. CANBY DELIVERS GALS WORTHY EULOGY IN CONSTITUTION HALL

(Continued from Page 1.) all fundamental concepts in life, that belief is self-limiting unless understood not in terms of mechanisms, but rather in the light of the spiritual development of man.

Warns Against Materialism
If our striving for freeing disciplines is our standard of measurement, we do not as a nation believe in liberal education. Because of material success, we have directed our attention to forms and prided ourselves upon our genius for organization; we have thought in terms of material conquest and pledged our souls to utilitarianism; we have dedicated our lives to the circumventing of time and thought of our cleverness in finding short cuts.

All of this stands in the way of true enlightenment that comes to the educated man. There is a demagogism in education, and we have been misled by it because we unwittingly have certain elements of the demagogue in our souls. We must remember that ignorance is not an innocent thing. It is a very active element that will keep us from that which is most desired in human life.

Just as we speak of a religious experience as a way of life, so we must understand education as a way of life, and these ways of thinking and feeling not only are of the individual heart, but they are elusive, and when the attempt is made to formalize them they vanish and lifeless imitation takes their place. It would be as possible to give military form to the activity of "the banded log" as it would be to organize faith, and hope, and understanding.

Aghast before the rapidly changing social system, let thankfulness replace bewilderment in your hearts, for the new order belongs to him who, having tried himself against the spiritual disciplines of life, stands eager-eyed and impatient to try again, and feels that the greatest gift of the gods of creation is the deep satisfaction attendant upon reaching out for the tomorrow.

Gamma Eta Gamma Announces Initiation

Hon. Wilbur J. Carr, Assistant Secretary of State, Made Honorary Member

Hon. Wilbur J. Carr, Assistant Secretary of State, was initiated as an honorary member of Gamma Eta Gamma, George Washington legal fraternity, on Saturday, February 18. The initiation was held in the Blue Room of the Hamilton Hotel. The other initiates were: Lawrence Brugman, James Heilman, Edgar Nelson, Maurice Page, Stanley Rossi, Welford Tiencken, and Alvin Williams, law students at the University.

The after-initiation banquet was served in the Gold Room and the listed guests were: Hon. Wilbur J. Carr, Hon. William Tyler Page, Hon. Everett Sanders, John W. Farrell, Commissioner of Patents Robertson, George H. Dale, Elisha Hanson, all members of the fraternity, and delegates from the chapters at Catholic University, Georgetown University, and from Baltimore.

At a recent dinner meeting of the fraternity Commissioner Winnings, of the Immigration Board of the Department of Labor, addressed the group on the subject of trailing down the undesirable alien in our midst, and the determination, once he is found, of where he is to be sent.

Dean Van Vleck, of the Law School, spoke of the relation of the various legal fraternities at school to the school itself, and commented on the cooperation the officials were receiving from the various groups.

176 STUDENTS MAKE SEMESTER HONOR ROLL

(Continued from page 1)

Rae Potter, Mary P. Russell, Letha Scott, Marjorie Sehorn, Sylvan Steiner, E. Leonard Stevens, Frederic Stewart, Thomas Stretton, Ella Tilly, Ernest J. Umberger, Helen Waters, Gladys West, Nancy Wheeler, William Willhide.

Columbian College:
To be eligible for the honor roll in Columbian College a student must have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours and must maintain a quality point index of at least 3.50 on his complete collegiate record.

Bernard Alford, J. Theodore Bray, Alice Caemmerer, Rowena Chaffeta, Lalla Cornish, Charles Critchfield, Sylvia Edlavitch, Margaret Frisbie, Gershon Gilbert, Pauline Grossman, Margaret Hardy, Hymen Lewis, Beatrice Miller, Philip Morgenstern, William Norris, Charles F. Robinson, Pearl Rollins, Herbert Rodeck, Delight Roth, Verna Schult, Arthur Storey, Ruth Weedon, Gladys Whitney.

The School of Engineering
To be eligible for the honor roll in the School of Engineering a student must have completed 15 or more semester hours toward a degree with an average of "B" or better. The entire record is considered, including physical education, but excluding courses taken to clear entrance conditions.

Joseph Allen, Reynold Ask, John Barry, Bernard Benson, Lester Clark, Harry Connor, Charles Cook, Selby Davis, William Dix, David Dreyfuss, Arthur Eno, Fred P. Fischer, Richard Free, David Gormley, Alfred Gross, William Heine, Albert Helvestine, Raymond Herner, R. Horace Hood, Frank Hornbrook, James Johnson, H. B. Lee, Henry Lepper, J. Harold Link, John H. Meads, Philip Merryman, Cearcy Miller, George Mortimer, Caleb Motz, Charles O'Connell, Jules Phillips, George Pigman, George Rhine, Thaddeus Riley, Murray Robinson, George Sakis, Robert Sharp, William Smith, Lee Schermerhorn, Vernie Swanson, Benjamin Taylor, William Tucker, Karl Vartia.

The Division of Library Science:
To be eligible for the honor roll in the Division of Library Science a student must have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours preceding the close of any semester with an index of 3.00 or higher. The scholarship record as a whole must be satisfactory.

Harriet J. Atwell, Mildred Bonwit, Dorothy Catling, Rosamond Clarke, William Clift, Ada Cox, Grace Davey, Isabella Dean, Mary Detwiler, John Dorosh, Gertrude Gray, Virginia Hawkins, Alice V. Hughes, Margaret Maltby, Miriam Marshall, Margaret Murphy, Anne Parker, Lucille Pepper, May E. Peters, Carolyn Post, Howard Rees, Elizabeth Rose, Elizabeth Sherier, Lillian Stam, Sylvia Werksman, Elise Wildman, Virginia Wooden, Hilda Zwilling.

The School of Education:
To be eligible for the honor roll in the School of Education a student must have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours preceding the close of any semester with an index of 3.00 or higher. The scholarship record as a whole must be satisfactory.

Helen Aron, Lois Balcom, Adnah Birthright, Celia Carpenter, Ruth Cogovan, Lucile Crain, Eleanor Crowley, Edna Crump, Joe Edwards, Verna Fenstermaker, Ina Forbes, Evelyn D. Foster, Grace Hall, Effie Handy, Eleanor King.

Annie Lassly, Dorothy Lauder, Helen Lawrence, Myrtle Mohagen, Florence Painter, Adele Price, Sara P. Rouse, Elizabeth Smith, Mary Spangler, Dorothy Tripp, Katherine Wassman, Lillian Watkins, Julia Wayland, Myrtle Werner.

The School of Government:
To be eligible for the honor roll in the School of Government, a student must have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours and have a quality point index of at least 3.30 on the complete collegiate record.

Stetson Conn, R. W. Mayoock, Verna Mohagen.

Alpha Lambda Delta Picks Four Women

Four freshmen women declared eligible by their academic work for the first semester will be "tapped" by Alpha Lambda Delta, national honorary scholarship sorority for freshmen women, at freshmen assembly, in Corcoran Hall 10, Wednesday noon.

Marjorie Sehorn, Mary Seery, Dorothy Clay, and Rae Potter are the women to be so honored. Eligibility for the sorority is based on an index of 3.5 for the first semester or first year at college.

This tapping ceremony, which is modeled after the custom of Yale fraternities, has become a tradition of the sorority.

Marvin Will Serve On Ball Committee

Second Time President Will Be Among Group to Greet Governors

President Cloyd Heck Marvin will be among representatives who will serve as the Distinguished Visitors Committee, at the Inaugural Ball. They will greet governors of the state and other notables who will appear at the March 4 fete at the Washington Auditorium at 8 p. m.

This is the second time that President Marvin has served on this committee, having officiated in a like capacity at the Hoover Inaugural Ball in 1928.

The George Washington University is also represented by three members of the Board of Trustees, Julius Garfinckel, Gilbert Grosvenor, and the Honorable John Barton Payne. All three will serve with President Marvin as members of the Distinguished Visitors Committee.

Tickets for the Inaugural Ball may be purchased in the Bursar's office, Building F, between 9 a. m. and 6 p. m. at $5 per ticket.

Lilies, Orchids, Rate As Medicinals; Said To Aggravate Pulse

Perhaps the ban on corsages will soon be lifted around George Washington, now the information is out that they have a medicinal value besides that of beauty and fragrance. The lily of the valley, known to the medical world as Convallaria majalis, might be the best choice for atmosphere for the crucial moment, as it is a decided stimulant to the heart. For the more extravagant swain, orchids, which belong to the same family, could be selected as they, too, aggravate the pulse. Both of these plants will be grown in the drug garden which was started Friday by members of the junior class of the School of Pharmacy.

Medicinal plants are used daily. In many bath talcums one finds purified silicious earths coming from a plant usually living in and around water. A deposit has been found here in Anacostia. This is a very common base for talcum, although it should not be confused with face powder. It is used in medicine as a dusting powder.

The same substance that is used for talcum is used in the preparation of bricks. In South Carolina a large deposit of the drug has been found and purified for bricks used in the past year. The powder comes from a plant which has the tendency to assimilate silicates into plant cells. On the death of the plant the silicate is deposited.

Most corsages are composed of two medicinal plants, the lily of the valley and the orchid. The lily of the valley yields the most expensive oil in perfumery.

Among the many plants and flowers to be planted in the experimental garden will be iris versicolor, better known as blue flag iris. For the broad expanses and widely different climates and soils of the American continent, there is no flower so universally adapted as the iris. It withstands equally the below-zero temperature of Canadian winters as well as hot, scorching winds and prolonged droughts of the summers below the Mason-Dixon Line.

No lilies can be found in Biblical lands; the flower there referred to as the white Easter lily is the white form of the staty iris of the various parts of Asia Minor.

Hatchet Notice

The following persons, recently appointed as junior reporters on The Hatchet staff, are requested to turn in application blanks, a copy of which may be found on the bulletin board in The Hatchet office:

Claude Bartley, J. L. Bass, Nancy Booth, Harrison Knapp and John Molyneux.

Cherry Tree Subscription Blank

Publications Office,
The George Washington University,
Washington, D. C.

I am enclosing herewith four dollars ($4.00) for which kindly reserve a copy of the 1933 Cherry Tree for me. It is understood that I will receive a form immediately entitling me to my copy when issued.

Name .....

Address .....

Frosh End Season With Spotty Record

Brilliant and Mediocre Play Characterizes Games of Walsh's Men

With last week's game with Eastern marking their final effort, the frosh's basket ball activities for the season came to a close.

An inventory of their year's work would indicate that it has been a successful one. In number of games won and lost, Walsh's men wound up with a total of eleven wins against six losses. But their play has been of the in-and-out variety; at times they have played brilliantly, especially at the beginning of the season, while on other occasions their work has been distinctly below par. They defeated the crack Tech five in one engagement but in the same week they bowed to the mediocre Gonzaga courtmen.

Kane was undoubtedly the outstanding star of the frosh aggregation. He has been brilliant on attack, leading the individual scoring in half of his team's contests, and amassing a total of about 150 points. Alfaro and Leamans also have shown well on the offensive, while Rathjen, Griffith, and Troup have been consistently good performers.

Matthews Speaks On War Problems

Three Speakers Address Club at First Session of War Conference

"The conception of the Nation, that is, the idea that the interests of the majority are best represented by those of a small ruling class, must be destroyed if we are to have permanent peace." Such was the statement of J. B. Matthews, executive secretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation and a speaker at the first session of the Liberal Club's conference against war, held Thursday, February 23, at 8 p. m. in K-12.

Mr. Matthews, the third speaker of the evening, addressed the conference on the subject of "The Student and War." He was preceded by Daniel Houston Buchanan, associate professor of economics, who spoke on "The Far East as a Menace to World Peace," and Paul Harris, Jr., field secretary for the National Council for the Prevention of War and director of the Youth Peace Council, who chose "The Death Racket" as his subject.

Professor Buchanan, after deprecating India as a possible menace to international tranquility, described the Sino-Japanese situation in Jehol and the danger it constitutes as a possible source of world conflict. Mr. Harris recounted the efforts of munitions makers and others who profit directly through warfare to curtail peace movements and generally encourage international hostilities.

Open Discussion Held
After Mr. Matthews' talk on what the student can do to ally himself with peace movements, the floor was thrown open to questions and discussions, which were participated in enthusiastically. A resolutions committee was then appointed, consisting of Alice Zucker, chairman, Lillian Shulman, Gifford Irion, Ben Hope, William Davis, Ross Bundy, William Brown, and Robert Shostek, and charged with presenting resolutions for the consideration of the conference at the next evening's meeting.

The second session, held in W-20, featured a debate between the Liberal Club and the Speakers' Congress on "Can We Have Peace Under Capitalism." The Speakers' Congress, represented by David Betts and Robert Hall, took the affirmative side, arguing that the accomplishments and projects of the various peace and disarmament conferences proved that peace was possible under our present economic system. The negative, consisting of William Davis and Robert Shostek, claimed that peace and disarmament conferences have really accomplished practically nothing, and that in capitalism lies the root of all war.

After some discussion of this subject, and a short discussion between Alice Zucker and Ben Hope, chairman of the organization, on "What Students Can Do," the conference took up the report of the resolutions committee. Resolutions were passed calling attention to the fact that war was not merely a subject for academic discussion, but a pressing problem, attacking American imperialism and suggestions of intervention into the internal affairs of Soviet Russia, and calling on all other student organizations to cooperate with the conference against war. After designating the resolutions committee as a continuation committee in its entirety, the conference adjourned.

Local Court Games Date Back to 1906

Basketball as a varsity sport was first adopted by George Washington University in the late autumn of 1906. This was one item in the general reawakening of interest in athletics which brought the Southern intercollegiate track championship to G. W. and laid the foundation for the 1908 football team, which won the South Atlantic title.

Six victories were registered by this first Colonial quintet while, dropping only two contests. Georgetown, Virginia, Washington and Lee and Staunton were defeated; Virginia won one game from the Colonials by the score of 18 to 17, and Georgetown nosed out a 15 to 13 victory in one game.

Law Students Hear Talks on Book Use

Beginning Monday, February 27, students in the School of Law are to hear five lectures on "How to Use Law Books," to be given in Stockton Hall 32, by J. Brandt, of the West Publishing Company.

To enable all students to attend, two sections will meet to hear the talks. Section 1 will meet for one hour each day on Tuesday and Friday at 10:10 a. m. and Monday, Wednesday and Thursday at 11:10 a. m. Section 2 will hear Mr. Brandt at 4:10 p. m. each day except Saturday.

Taste . . .

Freshness—goodness—wholesomeness. These are the real ingredients in Bill's food that bring more than 250 students to the G. W. every day. Try a G. W. meal when you're real hungry!

Breakfast, 15c; Lunch, 25c; Dinner, 35c

G-W BUFFET 1815 G

After College WHAT?

LAW?

Former Federal Judge Edwin L. Garvin says: "A keen mind, sound judgment and unflagging industry are required to digest the volumes of laws and decisions facing the practitioner today. The young lawyer can no longer practice by ear and intuition. The science of the law is exacting and difficult."

ONLY "a keen mind" can absorb the volumes of information which must be at the finger tips of the young lawyer today. Perhaps that's why in this profession, as in our leading colleges, a pipe is the favorite smoke. You see, it helps a man concentrate . . . clears cobwebs from his brain.

Try a pipeful of Edgeworth Smoking Tobacco—the favorite smoke among college men. *Notice how that blend of fine old burleys really helps you think out a difficult problem.

Edgeworth is distinctive . . . that's why you'll like it. You'll know—after your first puff. Want to try it before you buy? Just write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Virginia.

*A recent investigation showed Edgeworth the favorite smoke at 43 out of 54 leading colleges.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes—1 1/2 pocket package to pound humidifier. Some sizes in vacuum sealed tins.

